Our Important Sale of

Original Oil Paintings

Continues Throughout the Week—Savings of 1/2 to 1/3

There were so very many strikingly worth-while canvases in this collection of $30,000 worth of paintings that a great many choice ones still remain. There are splendid examples of well-known artists from America and overseas.

Many of the paintings were exhibited here and abroad. And most of them were bought directly from the artists in England, France, Holland and this country.

Each canvas has some quality that makes it worthy of attention, and the collection as a whole deserves a visit. You will enjoy a ramble through our department.

The frames were all chosen with great care to emphasize the beauties of the paintings and to harmonize with them.

As an example of the savings involved—canvases that were $474 are being sold for this one week for $316. Those as low as $24.39 are now marked $12.19.

For your information and comparison all original prices have been left on the paintings.
